Run Jump Throw Wheel - Program Leaders (Saskatoon Spring School Program)

Run Jump Throw Wheel (RJTW) is a nationally recognized physical literacy program aimed at the development of fundamental movement skills. The program is progressive, beginning with basic fundamental movement patterns and culminating in advanced skill development through track and field inspired games, activities, and skill challenges taught by instructors specifically trained to teach running, jumping, throwing, and wheeling (for children in wheelchairs).

Saskatchewan Athletics is accepting applications for the RJTW Spring School Program. Successful candidates will work with the RJTW Provincial Coordinator on implementing RJTW program instruction to children in participating Saskatoon Elementary Schools. Two leaders will be hired. There may also be the opportunity for rural clinic delivery outreach.

Anticipated Start/End Date: April 30 to June 7, 2019
Hours per week: 35
Salary: $3,200.00
Application Closing Date: March 11, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.

Additionally, we require all interested individuals to attend the upcoming NCCP RJTW Instructor Course in Saskatoon on Saturday, March 23, 2019.
